With stunning scenery surrounding you, the Dalmatian resorts are a paradise for fun seekers, with activities for all ages. As one might expect from resorts on the Adriatic coast, this is a great country to visit if wishing to sample some delicious regional cuisine. Sea-food dishes are common, with a delicious fish, tomato and garlic stew being a popular choice with locals and visitors alike. There are numerous local plum and walnut brandies to be tasted and also a good selection of rich Croatian red and white wines.
