

The luxurious Monte da Quinta resort is offering golfers the perfect chance to play Portugal's newly crowned best golf course, Laranjal, with a great deal on a three-night break.

Laranjal course was voted Best Golf Course in Portugal at the recent Portugal Travel Awards, and neighbours Monte da Quinta on the prestigious Quinta do Lago estate, making the resort an ideal base from which to explore it.

Golfers can enjoy three nights in one of Monte da Quinta's impressive suites and a round of golf on each of Quinta do Lago's Laranjal and North courses.

The price is based on two people sharing a one-bedroom suite and the package also includes daily breakfast; a buggy when playing the North course; VIP treatment in the room upon arrival; complimentary use of the resort's golf club lockers, gym, indoor heated swimming pool, sauna, Jacuzzi, Turkish bath and sensorial shower; a voucher for 10 per cent discount on clothing and golf items at MQ Shopping; and a free upgrade to a two-bedroom suite and late checkout, both subject to availability.

Monte da Quinta is an ideal base for anyone visiting the Algarve, located close to the famous golden beaches and surrounded by leisure options including championship golf, tennis and water sports. On-site there are a number of dining options, an extensive Kids' Club and the Magnolia Spa.

Situated in the heart of the prestigious Quinta do Lago estate, Monte da Quinta boasts a collection of 132 self-catering suites and a range of two and three-bedroom townhouses and spacious villas. All townhouses and villas come with private pools.

source: traveldailynews.com

For the best priced low cost Algarve Car Hire book with <http://www.best-algarve-carhire.com>